Student Life Leadership & Training and Young Woman's Guide are excited to present: Real Talk Leadership Summit, a conference style experience designed to discuss contemporary, engaging issues around leadership amongst a niche community.

With a focus on transforming passion to purpose, this Summit will empower and equip the young women of Rutgers University with leadership skills, personal development, and professional guidance.

Meet and Greet with professionals from various industries and engage in panel discussions and motivational talks with topics ranging from Image Development and Work-Life Balance to Women in Technology and Global Leadership.
